

Withdraw the FCC petition. "Established Business Relationships" translates into "Any Business You Were Connected to in the Past But Want Nothing To Do With NOW." If a consumer needs their services, The consumer will call THEM- note the other way around. If passed, this basically renders the privacy act useless. I will totally disconnect my phone services if this happens to protest, as will thousands of people. I am appalled. G. Kramer